TCDT activities bring STS-101 crew to KSC

Employees invited to enter slogan contest for Super Safety Day

▲ Mission Update: The STS-101 crew arrives at KSC Wednesday for the start of Terminal Countdown Test Demonstration (TCDT) activities Thursday and Friday. The TCDT will include emergency egress training and a simulated countdown.

▲ Super Safety Day And Health 2000 -- The Super Safety and Health Day is coming up and employees' ideas are needed for a slogan for this year's event. Prizes will be awarded for first and second place. The rules for the contest: Entries 1) must be submitted by April 14; 2) must include the employee's name, phone number and mail code; 3) must be relevant to the topics of safety and/or health; and 4) in the case of similar entries, the earliest one received will be considered. E-mail your entry to David.Board-1@ksc.nasa.gov, or send your entry to David Board, at NN-G. Hurry up and enter today!

◆ Silver Snoopy Awards Presented -- Astronauts Jerry Ross and John Herrington presented the prestigious Silver Snoopy Award to KSC employees recently. Recipients were Cris Guidi (AA-D); Jill Rock (AB); Brian Luther (PH); Wayne Heckle (Dynacs Engineering Co., Inc.); Nathan Findlay (Rocketdyne); and Karen Geiger, Renee Smith, Scott Southwell, Sandra Grizzle, David Cunneen, David Stuart, and Charles Hardison, all with The Boeing Company. Congratulations to everyone!

◆ Request for Nominations: The Canaveral Council of Technical Societies (CCTS) is requesting professional societies, defense/space agencies and contractors to help select candidates for two Space Congress awards. The Achievement Award calls for a senior level manager or executive who has led the efforts of a large group in achieving significant accomplishments in the local defense or aerospace enterprise. The Technical Achievement Award calls for an individual in a supervisory or team environment who has made a significant improvement or advancement in a process to benefit the government or company. Awards will be presented at the Space Congress Banquet on Tuesday, May 2, at the Radisson Resort at the Port in Cape Canaveral. For nomination criteria, contact Gene Hajdaj at (321) 861-4394 or (321) 631-8711. Nomination deadline is April 12.

◆ Spring Cleaning for Turtle Nesting: The Air Force 45th Space Wing and the Environmental Support Contractor are sponsoring a beach cleanup at CCAFS on Wednesday, April 12, from noon to 5 p.m. Join the JBOSC/SGS Beach Cleanup Team in preparing the beach for the upcoming sea turtle nesting season. The cleanup is voluntary, should be done on the employee's own time and have supervisor's approval. Badged volunteers may bring up to four unbadged guests. All guests must be over 10 years of age and are the escort responsibility of the badged volunteer. To sign up, contact Martha Carroll on e-mail by Wednesday, April 5, at martha.m.carroll@jbosc.ksc.nasa.gov. Additional information will be provided upon sign-up.

◆ Did You Know? The 16th National Space Symposium convenes this week in Colorado Springs. Colo. NASA Administrator Dan Goldin and KSC Director Roy Bridges will participate as keynote speakers and panel members.
