KSC rolls out new organization structure

EEAW committee seeks to improve annual event through feedback

▲ The KSC2000 reorganization is now in effect. Highlights of the new structure include creating a Spaceport Engineering and Technology organization to focus on spaceport technology and development and project management and a Spaceport Services group to service the needs of the center's internal and external customers; and establishing an External Relations and Business Development team to create a "one-stop shopping" for new customers and to improve internal and external communications. For a complete look at the directorates and their areas of business, visit the Web site <http://www.ksc.nasa.gov/admin/org/organization.html#extdev>. To read about the management staff and their titles, visit the KSC2000 Web site at <http://ksc2000.ksc.nasa.gov/default.htm>. Links are provided in the left column to such sites as GS14 and GS15 plus employee assignments and more.

▲ Feedback Wanted: The EEAW Committee would like to thank everyone who participated in this year's 2000 Environmental & Energy Awareness Week held April 18-21. The Committee would appreciate employee feedback on the following questions:

1. What was the best part of the event?
2. What would you like to see for next year?
3. What improvements can we make for next year?

Please e-mail comments to Barbara.Naylor-1@ksc.nasa.gov or porter@usasrb.ksc.nasa.gov

◆ Graduate Education at Florida Tech: Master of science degree programs are available through Florida Tech's Spaceport site at the NASA Education and Training Center, corner of 2nd St. and B Ave. Applications are now being accepted for both summer and fall semesters. For a catalog or new student application packet, please call 453-2030 or 784-2045.

◆ Name Change: Photobition (formerly Seven Worldwide), which provides photo prints and digital still images at the Kennedy Space Center, invites employees to view its new Web site at <http://www.photobition.homestead.com>. The site includes chat rooms, Web polls, a photo gallery where prints may be ordered, as well as company information and background. The site is updated regularly.

◆ May Health Education & Wellness Program: On-site blood pressure checks will be conducted during the next 2 weeks from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the following dates and locations: May 10, CIF lobby; May 11, O&C lobby; May 17, HQ lobby; May 18, ITL Warehouse, CCAFS.

◆ Did You Know? The KSC telephone directory cannot be recycled with the BellSouth directories. To dispose of your old KSC books, remove the white pages and recycle them the same way you recycle other white paper. Put the colored pages and the binders in the office trash. If you have any questions, please call Max Farley at 867-8295.
